

PINCHOT WIN DEALS BLOW TO MACHINE

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION MAY AFFECT NATION

Progressive Victory is Way Result is Characterized In State.

SEE NEW POSSIBILITY

Pinchot Believed To Be Formidable Presidential Material.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 18.—Stunned by the most smashing blow that has been dealt machine politics in Pennsylvania in years, the old line Penrose leaders of the Keystone state ruefully surveyed today the wreckage of their once powerful organization and the unpleasant prospect for them—of Gifford Pinchot, former personal friend and ally of the late Theodore Roosevelt, sitting at the head of the state government with all its perquisites of power and patronage at his command.

In capturing the Republican nomination for governor, Pinchot is believed by some of the shrewdest lieutenants of the late Senator Penrose had, to become overnight a formidable presidential possibility and to have become an important factor in national politics whom the "old guard" Republican leaders must consider henceforth.

Following so soon after the defeat of Senator Harry S. New, spokesman for the Harding administration by Albert J. Beveridge, one time progressive, in Indiana, the success of Pinchot in overturning the "old guard" Republican machine in Pennsylvania and in wresting from it control of the state government is also believed to be certain to cause former progressive Republicans to perk up throughout the country.

Widespread unrest and discontent, and pronounced dissatisfaction with the national as well as with the state administration, are declared by the old Penrose leaders to have contributed to their crushing defeat and to be certain to continue to be felt to an increasing extent within and beyond the borders of the state.

The coal strike, which affected thirty of the sixty-seven counties of the state and threw 300,000 men out of work in Pennsylvania, alone, is declared by Gov. Spruill and other "old guard" Republican leaders to also have been but one of the chief reasons for the Pinchot sweep.

As the Beveridge victory in Indiana was regarded as one certain to influence the senatorial contests in other states, so the Pinchot victory is expected to add to the trials and tribulations of the "old guard" Republican senators, who are up for reelection elsewhere, if only because it is likely to give fresh encouragement to former progressives who in a number of instances are opposing them and to the women of other states to turn out in large numbers to smash the old line Republican plans in them as the former Penrose leaders were crushed in Pennsylvania.

While the latest return indicate that Pinchot will probably receive a plurality of not more than 15,000, it is not so much the size of the majority that will have a far reaching effect on state and national politics as the fact that he actually wrecked the "old guard" organization, of Pennsylvania within less than six months after Penrose's death.

With 426 districts out of 7,393 in the state still to be heard from, Pinchot's lead over Alter, spokesman for the Spruill state administration who he defeated for the Republican gubernatorial nomination is estimated at 7,369 votes.

The walkover for U. S. Senator Geo. Wharton Pepper over William J. Burke, of Pittsburgh, his opponent, for the old Penrose seat in the senate, is one from which the "old guard" Republicans are seeking some surcease from their bitter disappointment at the result of the gubernatorial fight.

The killing occurred Tuesday and scores of theatre goers stood frozen in their tracks, when Allen, in a fit of jealous rage, jumped from his automobile in Madison Avenue and fired hot after shot at his sweetheart and her escort Sam Kerkin, 27, tailor, Miss Truvelled on her way to a hospital, but Kerkin escaped unharmed. Allen then turned the gun on himself and inflicted what are believed to be mortal wounds.

Washington, May 18.—The figure 13 held no charm today for the children crusaders who are besieging the White House and daily appealing for the release of their fathers from the prisons to which they were sentenced for violation of war time laws.

The children made their 13th unsuccessful attempt to see President Harding today, finally leaving the White House to go to the department of justice to try to see Attorney General Daugherty.

QUIET RESTORED AFTER RIOTING IN BALTIMORE

Worst Disorders Since Adoption of Volstead Act Occur.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 18.—Quiet was restored early today in the vicinity of the saloon and dwelling house of Joseph F. Kelley, at Green Mount Avenue and Eager street, where for hours last night and early today there raged the worst riot scene recorded here since the adoption of the Volstead act. During the disorders, one Washington prohibition enforcement officer and a Baltimore police sergeant were badly injured. Negroes hired to drive and load trucks to be used in hauling away what prohibition officials say were liquors worth $500,000 were dragged from the vehicles beaten and forced to flee. The tires of one truck were cut and the machine otherwise crippled. Dry agents and their helpers while loading the seized liquors were under fire of a bombardment of bricks, stones and bottles for more than six hours.

A riot call was sent in and police from every district in the city responded. Despite a heavy downpour of rain several thousand persons had gathered in the neighborhood and it was only by the exercise of rare judgment on the part of the police that serious bloodshed did not result from the outbreak. Missiles were hurled from house tops and from all sides on the ground. An alarm of fire was sounded; two score taxicabs were telephoned out; the "trouble wagon" of the local street railway company was dispatched to the scene; rescue squads, equipped with pulmotor, were sent hurrying to the neighborhood by the gas company; and reports of dead strewn about the ground brought half a dozen undertakers wagons.

Kelley, around whom revolved the raid, was confined to his home with a broken leg sustained three weeks ago. He protested in vain that the liquor was his own personal property, purchased long before the 18th amendment was adopted. Despite his protests, doors were smashed and the liquor seized. Kelley will be arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner when his condition permits.

BUILDINGS UNDER GUARD IN CHICAGO AS RIOTS FEARED

Officials Receive Threatening Letters as Leaders Are Being Held

Chicago, May 18.—Police "dead lines" were established today about buildings being constructed under the Landis wage award to guard against bombing and fires at the hands of terrorists.

Guards were stationed at strategic positions. All persons unable to explain satisfactorily their presence in the vicinity are to be apprehended and the guards have orders to "shoot to kill" if resistance is offered. The situation has many of the aspects of martial law.

The confession of John Miller, Driver of the automobile from which two policemen were shot and instantly killed a week ago in an outbreak of violence attributed to certain factions of the building trades unions, was on record today. Miller is said to have named Charles Daudausky and "Floater" Stanley as occupants of the car. "Charley," he said, did the shooting.

Police are withholding the name of a man arrested at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., yesterday in a raid on a convention of the Ukrainian Workingmen's Association. The man is believed, however, to have been implicated through Miller's confession.

Indictment of Miller and at least three others on murder charges was expected today.

RIVAL CANDIDATES IN PENNSYLVANIA

George E. Alter and Family.

E. T. McCLELLAN IS FOUND DEAD EARLY THURSDAY AT HOME

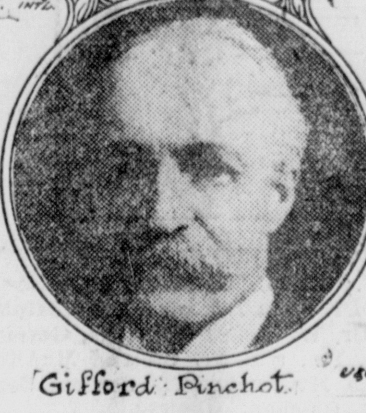

Despondency, induced by ill health is believed to have caused the death of Edward T. McClellan, 71, prominent Greene County farmer, at his home on the Cincinnati pike, early Thursday morning.

The body was found suspended from a rafter in the barn shortly after five o'clock, and it is believed the act took place between four and five o'clock Thursday morning.

Mr. McClellan had not been in good health for some time. A number of years ago he suffered a sun stroke, and for many years suffered from sleeplessness because of it. He had also undergone a number of operations within the last year and one half and during the last three or four weeks his condition is said to have been worse. His condition Wednesday was particularly bad and he suffered from nervousness. He retired early after having the usual family worship.

Mrs. McClellan died 15 years ago but six children survive. They are Miss Maude McClellan at home, Roy, Ralph, Earl and Mrs. John Collins, all of Greene County and Rev. Ernest McClellan of Rochester, N. Y. He also leaves three sisters, Miss Laura McClellan and Mrs. J. C. Williamson of this city, and Mrs. T. B. Bruce, of Catherine, Ala., and a brother, J. C. McClellan of Troy. He spent all of his life in Greene County and was a life-long member of the Second United Presbyterian Church of this city.

Funeral services will be held at the home Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial at Woodland Cemetery.

Gifford Pinchot.

One of the hottest political fights in years, waged in Pennsylvania for the Republican nomination for Governor between the rival candidates Gifford Pinchot, former Conservation Commissioner, and George E. Alter, at present State Attorney General, resulted in the smashing defeat of the old Penrose machine which Alter represented. Mr. Alter is shown with his wife and children—Kathleen, seventeen; Frances, eight; George, six, and David, four.

GIRL TAKEN TO STATE HOSPITAL; FOUND INSANE

Bucyrus, Ohio, May 18.—Irene Menges, 26 years old, was taken to the State Hospital at Toledo yesterday after being adjudged to be insane by Dr. John A. Riebel, Columbus, specialist, called here by Chester A. Meek, Prosecuting Attorney, to examine the girl, who, two weeks ago, was taken, half nude, from a building on the farm of her father, J. P. Menges, south of Crestline, where it is stated, she had been a prisoner for two years.

What effect commitment to the state institution will have upon the cruelty case which, it is said, were to be filed against the parents is not known here, as the County Prosecutor is attending Appellate Court in Lima.

WIFE DISCLOSES HUSBAND IS WOMAN AFTER WEDDING

Des Moines, Iowa, May 18.—After living a year and half with a woman posing as a "husband," afraid to reveal the deception, Mrs. Janette Simmons today caused the arrest of Mrs. Irene Gaul. Mrs. Simmons said Mrs. Gaul, dressed as a man and employed as a restaurant cook, courted her and continued the deception after their marriage. She said three weeks later she learned her "husband" was a woman.

LATEST IN BEDS FINDS FAVOR WITH PURCHASERS

Atlantic City, May 18.—Those who hate to climb out of bed in the morning needn't do it. The latest thing in beds, described here today at the National Electric Light Association Convention, has attachments for heat pads, lights, a fan and for a grill to cook breakfast or heat baby's milk.

In case baby has to be walked to sleep in the middle of the night papa or mamma can turn on a light under the springs which illuminates only the floor.

Thus they can see their way clear of tacks and toys without disturbing other sleepers or entertaining the neighbors.

BLASTS WRECK COAL TIPPLES AT PITTSBURGH

Arrests Expected in Latest Mine Strike Disorders Thursday.

PITTSBURGH, May 18.—Three terrific explosions early today smashed three coal mine tipples four miles above Turtle Creek in this county and ocked the countryside for a considerable distance. Matthew Patterson said to be a leader of the United Mine Workers, is under arrest and Sheriff Woodside's office announces other arrests are imminent.

The tipple at the mine of Speelman Brothers was blown to bits. A tipple at the mine of Silvia Brothers, half a mile away, was badly wrecked. In this instance the explosion was improperly located. Several minutes later the tipple at the Good Hope mine, two miles away, was blown up.

Considerable excitement prevailed in the village of Turtle Creek. All three mines affected have been working continuously since the miners strike began April 1.

SEES NATION WIDE PROSPERITY; OHIO INDICATES TREND

H. E. Scott at Bankers' Convention Thinks Improvement Near.

Cincinnati, May 18.—"If the maxim 'as Ohio goes, so goes the nation,' is as true economically as it is politically, the United States will soon experience the dawn of an era of permanent prosperity," declared H. E. Scott, state superintendent of banking today here in discussing the financial situation in Ohio. Mr. Scott is here attending the convention of the Ohio Bankers' Association.

He asserted that there has been a marked improvement in conditions in financial circles in Ohio during the past four months and said that "Ohio turned the corner four months ago."

"I do not believe that the national situation is so appreciably improved as the situation in our state," Mr. Scott said, "but the noticeable change in Ohio indicates a nationwide change for the better. Deposits in Ohio banks have increased almost $30,000,000 in the last 60 days and in the same period there has been a decrease in bills payable amounting to $40,000,000."

"The banks are in better condition today than they have been any time during the past two years and they are getting still better each day. No bank in Ohio has been closed within the last 18 months because of business depression. Money is easier and the banks have more of it today than in many months. This money comes from increased business."

GENOA CONFERENCE PLAN TO SEND INVITATION TO U. S. STOPPED BY CHILDS

Verbal Message Delivered By American Ambassador Checks Start—Truce Pact and Hague Proposal Ratified By General Commission of Conference.

Genoa May 18.—The plan of the Genoa conference convening powers for sending a second invitation to the United States to join in the meeting at The Hague for appointment of a mixed commission to study the Russian problem was stopped short today by a verbal message delivered by Richard Washburn Child, American ambassador to Italy. The allied statesmen, however, have not completely given up hope of further communication with Washington on the matter.

"We have given up the idea of American participation at The Hague for the time being," said an official statement issued by the British following the commission meeting. The British statement was based upon the oral declaration of Ambassador Childs that the United States is not likely to come into the Russian investigating commission until the scope and purpose of it are better understood.

The full political commission (the general commission of the conference) today, unanimously ratified the truce pact and The Hague proposal.

The much advertised Genoa conference is rapidly drawing to its close. The final plenary session will be held tomorrow when adjournment will be taken. The next meeting will be held at The Hague on June 15 when a mixed commission will be appointed to examine the Russian problem in detail by taking testimony of a commission of Russian experts. It is expected that the mixed commission will make a report sometime in October containing a long list of recommendations.

The taking of testimony from the Russians will commence on June 26, according to present plans.

The powers signing the truce pact are bound to refrain from any military movements and from making any separate agreements with Russia.

Both Russia and Germany are participants in the meeting today.

Delegate Skirmut of Poland, replying to a statement regarding Lithuania said: "Poland's intentions are most peaceful. She has no intention of attacking."

SHOOTING IN EAST END MAY RESULT FATALLY

William Mason 39, Colored, Suffering From Serious Bullet Wound Inflicted By Ollie D. Green, 26, Colored, Early Thursday—Claim Accident.

William Mason, 39, colored, of 917 East Main Street, is at McClellan Hospital suffering from a bullet wound that may prove fatal and Ollie D. Green, 26, colored, same address, is locked up at police headquarters pending investigation of the shooting which took place at the East Main Street address at seven o'clock Thursday morning.

Mason and Green are both ex-soldiers and students at Wilberforce University under the federal board for vocational training. Green alleges that he and Mason are warm personal friends and that the shooting was accidental, and Mason is said to have substantiated this viewpoint to physicians at the hospital.

The bullet, a steel-nosed .32 calibre from a Colt automatic pistol, struck Mason in the left side below the heart, and coursed downward toward the stomach. Drs. W. H. and R. K. Finley, to whose office, the injured man was taken by Matt Fowler, 25, East Main Street, a fellow student at Wilberforce, ordered him taken to the hospital after a cursatory examination and surgeons at the hospital operated Thursday morning in a probe for the bullet and an attempt to save Mason's life.

Following the shooting, Green called on Jacob Colp, commander of Foody Post, American Legion, and told him of the affair, asking his advice. The Legion Commander told him to wait while he called the police.

Green's home is in Cincinnati from which city Mason also came to take up vocational training at Wilberforce. Green's wife, Mrs. Grace Green, now has a $20,000 suit pending in the local courts against the University alleging injuries sustained when she fell in a man-hole at the University some time ago. The Greens have lived here for a year and five months, but recently Mrs. Green has been in Cincinnati while Greene was under—

WEST END CHURCH PROPERTY MAY BE SOLD TO NAZARENE

A proposition to sell the West End Church, property, at Orange street and Bellbrook avenue, to the Nazarene Church of this city, is being considered by the Second United Presbyterian Church, owners of the property.

The proposition was submitted to the trustees of the Second U. P. Church by the trustees of the Nazarene congregation, which at present occupies a room in the Werber building on South Detroit street.

The proposition of sale was placed before the congregation of the Second United Presbyterian Church by the trustees at the prayer meeting Wednesday night, but because the attendance was not representative, the vote will not be considered as final sentiment regarding the sale and another canvass of the congregation will be taken later.

The vote at the prayer meeting Wednesday night stood 29 for the sale of the property and 20 against its sale. The church property is a modern religious edifice, built as a branch of the Second United Presbyterian Church a number of years ago and cared for under the pastorate of the Rev. Charles P. Proudfoot, pastor of the Second United Presbyterian Church.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR MODERATOR OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SOON

Des Moines, Ia., May 18.—The possibility that William Jennings Bryan may be a candidate for moderator of the Presbyterian church, was engaging the attention of delegates at the 134th general assembly of the church opened here today.

Bryan, holding credentials as a commissioner, is expected to arrive today. He has been frequently spoken of as a likely candidate for moderator. John Willis Baer of California is the only layman who ever has been elected moderator of the church.

Others mentioned as probable candidates are Dr. W. O. Thompson, president of the Ohio State University; Rev. W. R. Taylor, Rochester, N. Y.; Dr. C. C. Hays, Johnstown, Pa.; Dr. John B. Laird, Philadelphia and Dr. W. Beatty Jennings, German town, Pa., and Dr. Cleland McAfee, of the McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.

An effort is expected to be made to have the assembly repudiate the claims of the federal council of the churches of Christ of America that it represents 30,000,000 protestants. Views of the federal council on labor and on international questions are said to be strongly opposed by many Presbyterians.

The assembly will be in session until May 26.

Score Are Killed When Fire Sweeps Hospital

ROME, May 18.—A score of persons were killed and many were injured when fire swept the Holy Ghost hospital here today.

There were hundreds of patients in the hospital and the helpless ones grew panic stricken as smoke filled the corridors and sick rooms. Attendants of the institution worked gallantly assisting firemen and policemen in carrying the sick to safety.

The building was destroyed and it is not known if there are any corpses in the debris.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT FRIDAY IN XENIA TO BE DIFFERENT

A particularly interesting exhibit of the work of Central High School pupils will feature the annual school exhibit to be held in all city schools, Friday.

The exhibit of Central High this year will differ from last year's exhibit in that an attempt will not be made to show the personal work of each student, but to show the results of work in the different departments of high school education.

The exhibit will be on the first and third floors of the building, where parents and patrons will be welcomed all day. Probably the most interesting feature of the exhibit will be the furniture for the new building which was made by high school students in the manual training department, under the supervision of Verne L. Faires and Carol Zumbro, the instructors.

The students have made desks and study tables, and furniture and equipment for the school rooms in the new high school building, that will save the board of education considerable expense in furnishing the new school. The Home Economics department will again have an interesting exhibit, showing work done by students in this department.

Boys of the junior class have also fitted up a radio outfit on the third floor of the building for the entertainment of visitors to the exhibit. The radio phone will catch concerts and other wireless programs all day, and a program will be posted in the first floor hall, showing visitors what sort of program is being heard at all hours of the day.

The visiting hours will be in the afternoon at all schools, although visitors will be welcomed in the class rooms in the morning. The work of students in the Opportunity School, North Whiteman street, and Spring Hill Opportunity School are expected to be interesting showing the various practical things which the children are taught to make in those schools.

ELEANOR GRACE SAYS

"Hear the mellow wedding bells.
Golden bells!
What a world of happiness their harmony foretells!"

There is no lovelier picture than the bride in her wedding gown, draped in airy folds of the snowy veil. The wedding veil is treasured for many years and the same veil may lay its benediction of joy on many brides. The veil, therefore, is the crowning item of the bride's wedding costume. For this purpose we have lovely white silk tulle, two yards wide, that comes at $2.75 a yard.

With her traveling outfit the bride will want a handsome travelling bag. A black leather bag, of the likely make, leather lined, and adequately fitted up with pockets, would answer the purpose admirably. They come at $10.00. If it is to be an extensive honeymoon she will be interested in a Hartman trunk at $30.00.

A beautiful umbrella is another thing she will want for the honeymoon trip. A wonderfully classy green silk umbrella has a loop handle of jade, a silver cap on the end of the stick, and small ivory tips. It would prove an effective barricade against the showers of rice and confetti as well as against rain drops. Priced $11.00.

Important indeed is the pocket-book, even on so happy an occasion as the wedding trip. We have a wonderful assortment of beautiful pocketbooks in a great variety of styles. Some of the lovely new ideas, such as the clover-leaf bag, would seem especially appropriate, and would of course bring good luck. Bags of all kinds, priced from $1.00 to $11.50 offer the bride a wide range of choice.

On the corset depends the fit of the trousseau garments, therefore, it is necessary that much attention be given this item. A LaCamille, will give satisfaction in every way. They are front lace and come in white and pink. Priced from $3.00 to $5.00.

An exquisite handkerchief is an accessory dear to the heart of all brides. It gives added delight if it is the gift of a friend. We have the loveliest of hand embroidered handkerchiefs, of pure linen, at $3.50 to $5.00. There are also charming Madeira handkerchiefs that come at $1.00.

A manicure set, complete in every detail and attractively packed in a scarlet box, all the articles in pretty little scarlet holders, would be just the thing to drop into the travelling bag. You will find them at the toilet goods counter. They come at $2.00 a set.

Especially fine in every way is the Floramye imported face powder. It has a delicate perfume that is exquisitely refined. Put up in charming boxes it is dainty enough to have been made especially to give the last dainty touch to the June bride's toilet.

A Wealth of Lovely Things Greet The June Bride

The lovely June bride is the cynosure of all eyes. It is important, therefore, that every detail of her costume for the wedding, and all attendant occasions, be perfect in every detail.

In order to have all in readiness for the great occasion the June bride-to-be is now busy choosing and fashioning the beautiful trousseau garments.

To assist in her joyous preparations we have many charming things to which we invite her attention.

Her Wedding Gown

Silken Underthings

Of course the trousseau underthings will be of softest daintiest fabrics, preferably of silk.

Lovely indeed is the large assortment of crepe-de-chine night gowns, as exquisitely colored as petals of flowers. They come in all the soft orchid shades and have trimmings of filet and val lace. Priced ..$3.95

Jobe Brothers Company

The Bridesmaids Frocks

Bouffant, youthful models in airy georgettes, or lustrous Canton crepes, in white, jade, periwinkle, flame, canna, orchid or biege tints, trimmed with yards of fluffy double ruffles, beautiful beaded or embroidered effects, or clever self trim designs, would make charming frocks for the bridesmaids who will form a part of the happy bridal procession. Priced$19.75

The Going Away Suit

For the honeymoon trip a smartly tailored suit is of foremost importance. Beautiful suits of tricotine and poiret twill, in severely tailored models or dressier styles with trimmings of embroidery or braid, are here for the choosing, priced at from$25.00 to $39.75

Handsome suits of homespun and tweed, in a variety of popular shades, are also splendidly adapted to the travelling uses and are extremely smart. Priced$25.00

THEN THE SEPARATE WRAP

For wear with her dressier gowns the bride will want a cape or loose wrap. For use with her travelling suit she will probably want a pair of two button silk gloves in mastic, beaver, grey, navy, black or white. Priced$1.00 pair

MAY DAY AND NO BLOODY NOSES.

For the first time in several years neither the Department of Justice, the Attorney General's office nor the chief of investigators saw red with the arrival of May, for which the public will no doubt be grateful. The country has grown rather wearied with alarming prophecies of plots stretching across the continent which did not materialize or were driven back into their dens by a wave of the hand from watchful representatives of the Department of Justice. May 1 came and went as the day has for ages without mutterings of discontent, threats of violence or even forecasts of plots. It was really a touch of the good old days of normalcy for May to make its bow, smile through its sunshine and pass along, merely as one of the glad days of the budding season. There is more than a mere probability that the dangers of May day were brushed by the plain common sense of President Harding who refused to shy at pieces of paper flying about in the spring breezes.

U. S. PARTICIPATION IN RUSSIAN SETTLEMENT IS IDEA BEHIND PROPOSED HAGUE PARLEY.

State Department officials withheld comment on news from Genoa that the economic conference is to be resumed June 15 at The Hague, mainly in the hope of inducing the United States to participate.

Unless Russia in the meantime accedes to the basic conditions laid down by Secretary Hughes on March 25, 1921, and again on May 1, 1922, the American Government will engage in no traffic whatever with or on behalf of Russia. The Harding Administration's policy toward the Soviet is dictated mainly by the views of Secretary Hughes and Hoover. Those views are in complete accord on the primary question of requiring basis for productivity and credit within Russia which Lenin's delegates at Genoa have shown no sign of conceding. If between now and June 15 the Soviet experiences a change of heart many things are possible, but the change will have to be radical, fundamental and trustworthy to enlist America's interest.

Europe's anxiety to embroil the United States in its Russian troubles is well understood here, but our cards have been on the table face up long enough for both the Soviet and Europe to know exactly what the conditions for our participation are.

Official Washington's view, held for weeks, that the Genoa conference was tottering to an ignominious fall is considered to be fully vindicated by the events hastening to a sorry conclusion.

A CHINESE OPINION.

Sao Ke Alfred Sze, Chinese minister to the United States, describes the fighting in China as "an inevitable incident during the period of readjustment from a monarchy to a republic." He says: "I do not think the fighting will last long, nor can it be compared in any sense with the American Civil war. The question involved is an entirely domestic one. Neither side has shown any disposition to interfere with foreigners in China or their property. I am sure this will be continued as long as the foreigners do not take sides or interfere. I have no doubt that the powers will observe strict neutrality and observe their declarations made at the Washington conference, that they would 'refrain from taking advantage of the present conditions in order to seek special rights or privileges, etc.' Personally I think too much attention has been directed to the present unrest and disarray and apparent lack of unity among certain classes of our people."

AMERICA WILL STAY OVER THERE.

American troops will not all be home by July 1, as announced by the war department several weeks ago. Following requests not only from all the allies, but from Germany as well, Washington decided to leave one regiment of Yanks on the Rhine.

Reconsideration of the order for the removal of the troops would indicate that Washington received assurances of payment of the cost of the army of occupation, a mere quarter of a billion. French hesitation to admit America's right to repayment of this sum must have been overcome before Paris joined in the request that American troops stay.

The Germans, it seems, want the United States to stay because American military co-operation will permit a restraining counsel against "French militarism," and France, Britain and Belgium want this country to remain because of the moral effect of continued union of the allied and associated powers in making Germany toe the line.

OPINION ABOUT ARBUCKLE.

It is hinted that the decision not to show any Fatty Arbuckle films was not intended as an absolute, final judgment on Arbuckle, but rather as a test of public opinion. An impression has been given, whether intentionally or not, by Mr. Hays and his associates, that the films already prepared may be released some time in the future if it appears that the public wants them or will stand for them.

If that is the attitude of the producers and distributors, there is surely small chance of any immediate deluge of Arbuckle comedy. Nearly all of the newspaper comment so far warmly commends the action of Mr. Hays as in harmony with the best public sentiment and as tending to raise film standards.

It is not a question of holding Arbuckle responsible for the lamentable tragedy with which his name is now associated. A jury has declared him innocent of crime and that verdict is accepted by the public. But the public judges Arbuckle, as the jury could not do, for the low ideals and bad taste represented in the whole nasty episode, and does not want to be reminded any more than is necessary of the least admirable side of Hollywood life and art. It is not now in any mood to laugh at or with "Fatty." Arbuckle may "come back" some day. Whether he does should depend, and probably will, on his own conduct henceforth.

CALL FOR THE TOW CAR

1902--Twenty Years Ago--1922

The Xenia Shoe factory has about closed down and the work of invoicing is now in progress there.

The class night exercises consist of two plays, the first a German play, "William Tell," and the second Tennyson's "Princess."

Workmen today began to make some extensive changes in the postoffice arrangements. The windows at the side will be cut down and the lobby changed to the opposite side of the room.

It seems that another matrimony boom is on in Xenia and several of our well-known and most popular young people will join the ranks of those sailing on the matrimonial seas before many moons.

Today's Talk

by George Matthew Adams

MIDNIGHT

There has always seemed to be a touch of mystery about midnight—the night clothed in great silence. I must confess, however, that I like to pass through midnight's charms to my bed for the rest that night prepares.

How serenely still everything is—even in the big city.

I live at the city's edge where at midnight I am able to hear the distant rumble of late cars or an occasional axcab—then vast quietness.

Almost all the lights of the distant apartment houses have disappeared one by one. Thousands of hands have touched electric buttons—then as many thousands of tired eyes have been placed on pillows for the watch of the stars.

I look out of my window, as I myself have just pressed the button that has brought upon darkness, and through the movement of the trees I see the stars winking their laughter to me as though bidding me goodnight.

The books have been closed, the typewriter over which my fingers have played for so many hours and years, is silent.

I push my window open a little more so that I may hear the trinkle of the spring just a little way off down the hill.

The entire house is free from noise and movement. Hours before have the other sleepers been traveling in dreams.

I smell the pungent odor of blossoming flowers and trees. There is a freshness in the air. Spring has followed Winter.

Even the songsters have long ago nestled in their homes among the boughs.

The work of the day and night is over. The brain and body are both honestly tired. Now the Soul must come to its play and its thoughts. So we say to ourself and all the world—Good night!

CHILDREN IN SPRING TIME

Mrs. C. Osborn, 7812 Hillside Rd., Cleveland, O., writes: "My granddaughter was troubled with a cough for nearly two years. She took Foley's Honey and Tar and her cough is now gone. It loosened the phlegm so she could raise it easily." Foley's Honey and Tar is just what children should have for feverish colds, coughs, "snuffles" and tight, wheezy breathing. Be sure to get Foley's. It checks croup and whooping cough, too. Sayre & Hemphill, adv.

COULD HARDLY STAND AT TIMES

Hips, Back and Legs Would Have That Tired Ache

Everett, Washington.—"For several years I have had trouble with the lower part of my back and my hips and my legs would ache with that tired ache. I could hardly stand on my feet at times. I was always able to do my work although I did not feel good. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and having heard several praise it I decided to try it. I feel first-rate at the present time. It has done wonders for me and I keep it in the house right along. I always recommend it to others who are sick and ailing."—Mrs. J. M. SIBBERT, 4032 High St., Everett, Washington.

To do any kind of work, or to play for that matter, is next to impossible if you are suffering from some form of female trouble. It may cause your back or your legs to ache, it may make you nervous and irritable. You may be able to keep up and around, but you do not feel good.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a medicine for women. It is especially adapted to relieve the cause of the trouble and then these annoying pains, aches and "no good" feelings disappear.

It has done this for many, many women; why not give it a fair trial—now.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

THE MOURNERS.

It's sad to mark the early doom of one whose life we prize; so on our faces there was gloom, and sorrow in our eyes, what time we gathered at the tomb of William Wadsworth Wise. It turned our blood to whey and curds, to plant him on the hill, although the pastor spoke some words that gave us all a thrill; he said he'd known men who were birds, but none could beat old Bill. He was a great and gifted gent of virtues manifold; he never owed a man a cent but always paid the gold; and everywhere that William went he knocked the speed laws cold. To every worthy cause he gave with free and open hand; though generous, he yet could save, and with the thrifty stand; and when he scroched along the pave the speed laws all were canned. He treated all men just alike, as being equal made he smiled on Pete and joked with Mike, and love for both displayed; and when he hummed along the pike he made the speed laws fade. But sterling worth will not avail when autos overtun; we found him in a ferny vale hard by a babbling burn, and by his grave we raise our wall, and consolation spurn. And thus we see true merit pass, and murmur, "That is that;" and William Wadsworth Wise, alas, no more will come to bat, because he would step on the gas and knock the speed laws flat.

going treatment at the Soldier's Home hospital Dayton. He was discharged from the hospital Saturday and went to Cincinnati, returning late Wednesday night. Mason has been rooming at the Green house five months according to Green, who claims that they have been warm personal friends.

Green told his story of the shooting to Prosecuting Attorney J. Kenneth Williamson, Chief of Police Graham and Deputy Sheriff George Birch from his cell at police headquarters, Thursday morning. He said that he and Mason had arisen to go to school at Wilberforce and that they began a conversation about the army which later veered to the topic of pistols. Green said he kept the automatic for protection and that when Mason asked him how the gun was loaded, that he took a loaded magazine from his trunk, placed it in the gun and cocked it. He said he thought the safety catch was on and that when the gun exploded he did not know he had shot Mason.

"Ollie, son, you've shot me," said Mason, according to Green. The latter then said he went to the office of Dr. H. R. Hawking and Dr. C. H. Lindsay and when he could not get either one of the physicians, he asked Matt Fowler, 25, colored of Omaha, Neb., fellow student at Wilberforce, who lives near Green's home, to take Mason to a physician. Fowler said he knew both slightly.

Although both Mason and Green bore evidence of having been drinking, according to authorities and several empty bottles which are said to have contained corn whiskey were found in the house, Green denied that either had had any liquor or was drunk at the time of the shooting.

Green will be kept at police headquarters until authorities are convinced that the shooting was accidental and until Prosecutor Williamson has had opportunity to run down the theory that the men had corn whiskey in their possession.

TRADITION OF 50 YEARS SHATTERED

Columbus, May 18.—A tradition of 50 years will be shattered in June when commencement exercises for Ohio State University seniors are taken off the campus for the first time in history in order to permit parents of the 1200 candidates for degrees to see their sons and daughters graduate.

Out of a situation which frequently presents the problem of trying to seat a student body of 8000 in a chapel adequate for 1500, has grown an insistent demand for an auditorium on the Ohio State University campus.

Consequently University Trustees are broadcasting an invitation to Ohio State alumni and friends everywhere to submit suggestions on such phases of the moot question as: activities, an adequate auditorium should house, seating capacity, general nature of the building, location on the campus and cost.

In the effort to assemble suggestions for embodiment in tentative plans, the trustees are offering six cash awards ranging from $25 to $100 and totalling $300 for the best essays submitted by July 1. Student interest is invited by an additional offer of remission of tuition fees for one year to each of two student authors of essays. All essays must be typewritten, double spaced, signed by a nom de plume and accompanied by a sealed envelope marked on the outside by the nom de plume and containing the name and address of the competitor.

The Markets

STOCKS

Irregularity and reaction in the stock list have not altered the majority opinion that a construction position is justified in estimating future possibilities. Commission houses see in recent market movements only the natural and inevitable consequences of an extended rise. Whether forward movement will be resumed with vigor depends upon the indications whether business will make further progress than the stock list has already discounted. Traders do not yet see clearly what will follow the spring revival. A decisive turn is improbable until money tightens and industrial earnings much more generally fulfill the confident predictions made of them.

GRAIN

The wheat market has fluctuated under the minor or transient influences for the most part, and opinion is uncertain as to its future course. The new crop outlook is favorable, and winter crop may closely approach that of last year. European crop reports are mixed in character. One authority estimates production on the continent at 10 per cent below 1921. Milling demand for wheat, in this country shows limited improvement. Corn has in its favor good profits in hog feeding, easier money, foreign demand, and late seeding. Farm reserves of corn on March 1 were less than a year ago.

LIVESTOCK

Improvement in the cattle trade is expected, following an increase in beef consumption. Calves have strengthened somewhat, but their course is still uncertain. Veal has been the cheapest meat available. The summer calf run will not be excessive. Stockers are in good demand with supply deficient. Prices advanced to the season's highest. Live mutton is in process of readjustment while the hog market has shown its vulnerability in face of a liberal run. Until June it will maintain considerable strength.

WOOL

The demand for wool has continued with prices tending higher. The American Woolen Co. has advanced prices on worsted goods. Buying of the new clip from the West has gone forward quite rapidly. All classes of wool are participating in the current activity. The tariff is the chief prop to the wool market. Dealers are beginning to buy speculatively in the belief that a shortage will develop in this country, and the mills, which are buying hand-to-mouth, can be made to pay the price.

COTTON

Cotton quoted above $20.00 again recently for the first time in months, reflecting the change of sentiment inspired by the crop and weather reports and some improvement in the goods trade. The South is bullish. Owing to the scarcity and high price of good seed it is unlikely that all the acreage damaged by rains and floods will be resown. Consumption of cotton has been large, and the South puts great store by the figures recently issued by the department of Commerce, England, France, Germany and Italy are increasing their consumption of raw cotton and another small crop would find the world supply deficient, quite probably.

AGRICULTURE

To the average unthinking man, and even to the eastern farmer, the announcement of the department of Agriculture that all of the $1,500,000 provided in the Seed Loan act for the relief of farmers in the drought-stricken areas of the Northwest will have been exhausted by the middle of May signifies little. Yet behind it lies a pitiful story of struggle against adversity, of financial loss, and of individual privation and suffering.

The Seed Loan act is limited in application to wheat, oats, barley, and flax, and is intended to relieve North Dakota, the northwest counties of South Dakota, Montana, several counties in Idaho and Washington.

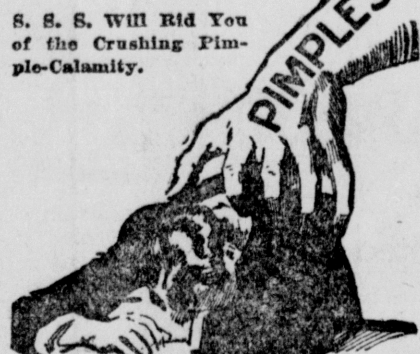

The need for such relief is patent to business men of Chicago, Minneapolis, and St. Paul, who wholesale commodities throughout this inland farming domain, to commercial travelers who see the country first hand, and to those who have investment interests in the Northwest. Parts of Montana have suffered successive and almost complete crop failures, due principally to drought. Each year the dry farmer borrowed more heavily and sowed again, sure that the tide must turn. The rancher suffered from a shortage of hay, which caused depletion of his herds. The sheep raiser and cattle rancher both suffered the injustice of prevailing prices for their animals far out of line with freight rates and out of line with manufactured goods.

Conditions in the Northwest call for government relief. Many farmers have left the region and those who remain often have no money to buy seed and are not entitled to further credit at the banks. They cannot plant another crop without aid. Strangely the majority of settlers in this truly fertile country, including conspicuously the merchants, bankers and other leaders in each community, retain a large measure of their faith. They recall that Kansas suffered devastating droughts in its Physics and purgatives will fail. What you need is a scientific blood-cleanser. S. S. S. is one of the most powerful destroyers of blood impurities. You can prove this in a short time. S. S. S. has been passed on by a jury of millions of people just like yourself. It is considered one of the most powerful vegetable blood-purifiers and flesh-builders in existence. WORK OF PAYING CLAIMS OF HOUSTON BANK IS STARTED

Work of paying the claims of depositors of the Houston Bank at South Charleston, began Wednesday morning. By nightfall Wednesday $191,000 of the $380,000 in net claims of 2500 depositors had been paid to persons calling at the bank and presenting certificates of indebtedness issued against the bank by the state banking department, after it closed the institution November 13, 1920. The bank will be kept open as long as necessary to give depositors an opportunity to get their money, it is said. All claims will be paid on the basis of 100 cents on the dollar face value, without any allowance for interest. Payment is being made by Lawrence E. Laybourne, trustee for L. H. Houston, estate, and H. E. Loveless, trustee for the E. D. Houston estate, the money to pay the depositors having been advanced as a loan by a pool of bankers who hold other claims against the institution. Total claims of depositors against the bank amounted to $530,000 but reductions of amounts owed the bank in notes and other forms of indebtedness were made against some depositors to the amount of $150,000. This reduced the amount to be paid to $380,000.

COMMITTED TO JAIL FOLLOWING HEARING

In default of bond, Charles Wessel and Anthony Cyruse were arrested in this city on charges of illegal transportation of alcohol, were committed to the Montgomery County Jail following a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Carl Lenz in Dayton. Wessel's bond was placed at $4,000 and Cyruse was placed under a $2,000 bond. They were arrested here May 6, while driving a truck containing alcohol, said to have been part of a shipment from a drug house in Tennessee to the Consolidated Drug Co., of Columbus. Wessel is said to be a director of the latter company.

FORMER-WIFE SELECTS NEW BRIDE SAYS MAN

Aurora, Ill., May 18.—Vincenzo Gullotta, a Sicilian violinist, who said he was directed to marry a woman chosen for him after death, "by the companion of my most thrilling hours my departed wife," announced he would wed Miss Helene Rogers, a Bavia, Ill., school teacher, in the autumn. His wife also was a Bavia girl. Thought guided Gullotta in the new courtship, he said. "In the night I could sense her presence," he said, "and she molded my thoughts. I followed her guidance implicitly and always things turned out for the best."

Styles BY LENORE

Have you a "sweet girl graduate" in your home this Spring? If so, I venture the guess she will step up to the platform for her diploma in a spirit of high serenity if she wears a frock of crepe de chine, with narrow inserts of tiny white beaded banding arranged in the clever design indicated in the sketch. The skirt, as you may see, is flat pleated, and the long, graceful sash is of self-material. The sleeve, with its loose loop of beading, is delightfully girlish. Crepe Romaine so soft and clinging, may also be used if preferred to crepe de chine. Or do you, perhaps, prefer a crisp organdie frock? This same design is entirely suitable, as lace may be substituted for the beading, the skirt made plain, relieved only at the hem with a diamond-shaped border of lace, to match the design at the waistline.

ADVOCATE CANCELLATION
Washington, May 18.—Cancellation of $11,000,000,000 foreign debt to the United States as the "shortest road to prosperity" was advocated before the annual convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce by John Ross Delafield, international banker of New York.

TWO GOOD SUPPER MENUS

"What shall I have for supper?" is a question that comes in to me again and again. The following three supper menus may contain dishes with which you are not familiar:

Quick Egg-Cheese Souffle
Rye Gems
Cocoa Fruit Tapioca

Quick egg-Cheese Souffle: Separate the whites and yolks of three eggs. Beat the yolks well and add to them one-fourth pint of skim milk, three ounces of grated American cheese, one-half teaspoon of salt, and a dash of pepper, then fold into them the three egg-whites beaten stiff. Turn the mixture into a buttered baking dish and bake 20 minutes in a hot oven. Serve in the same dish.

Rye Gems: Mix well together one pint of rye flour, one-half pint of corn meal, one-half pint of wheat flour, three teaspoons of baking powder, one teaspoon of granulated sugar. Beat two eggs till very light and add to them one pint of sweet milk. Then gradually stir this liquid mixture into the dry mixture. Beat till smooth and add one and one-half tablespoons of melted butter. Turn into greased, hot gem pans and bake 20 minutes in a hot oven.

Macaroni "Cutlets"
Quick Biscuits
Fresh Berries
Cookies

Macaroni Cutlets: Break two ounces of macaroni into very small pieces and cook in boiling salted water till tender. Melt one ounce of butter and mix into it one ounce of flour and one scant gill of either brown stock or canned consommé or chicken soup. Cook, stirring constantly, till the mixture leaves the sides of the pan. Then add to it the drained cooked macaroni-pieces, one egg-yolk well beaten, and salt to suit taste. A few drops of "kitchen bouquet" is also an addition. Mix well and turn out onto a platter to cool and harden. Then cut into fairly small portions, mould cutlet-shape with the hands and fry in deep, hot fat till a golden brown. Serve with the following:

Cheese Sauce: Put into the top of a double boiler two tablespoons of butter, and when melted stir in two tablespoons of flour and one cup of sweet milk. Continue stirring till the mixture is smooth, then add one-half cup of either grated or finely shaved American cheese and stir till this is melted. Season with salt to taste, and turn this at once over the hot macaroni "cutlets."

BEAUTY CHATS

EYELASH CREAM

It has been a long time since I have printed the formula for an eyelash cream. Many number of tonics, good and bad, are on the market; many are nothing but vaseline, which is of no use at all, since it is a mineral product. An eyelash cream must be very heavy since it must contain nourishing oils. Mine, for instance, is made of:

Cocoa butter 1 dram
Paravax 4 drams
Lanoline 1-2 dram
Oil of sweet almonds, 4 drams
Rose oil 2 drops

This last is only a perfume, any other perfume oil may be substituted. This makes a very thick cream, hard to rub in until it softens on the warm skin. Only a little need be used—I'd advise putting it on at night, for the cream will make lashes feel heavy and the eyes sleepy. And in hot weather, a very little should be rubbed into the lashes and then wiped off the skin, for the heaviness of the cream will make the skin perspire.

And don't forget the often-repeated advice—if you want long thick lashes, clip them fairly short and keep them so for a few months, then let them grow in. This is the best way to start any treatment.

And if you want dark lashes, a harmless way to stain them is to add 30 grains of peroxide of manganese to the above formula. But I rarely advise this, simply because the natural color is usually the most becoming. A temporary coloring can be obtained by using an eyebrow pencil.

See—Directions for the different ways of using henna will be mailed to you if you send a stamped addressed envelope.

Mrs. Lydia Hudson, 51, for seven years matron at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home, in this city, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Esther Fisher, on West Third street, Dayton, Tuesday evening, at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Hudson had been suffering from a complication of diseases for some time, and resigned her position at the local institution recently on account of ill health. Since that time she had been residing with her sister, Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Hudson is survived by her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McNeil, of Dayton, and six sisters and two brothers.

Several matrons from the O. S. and S. O. Home attended the services at Dayton, Wednesday. The body was taken to Blanchester Thursday, where interment was made by the side of Mrs. Hudson's husband.

Mrs. Hudson gained many friends in this city during her stay at the Orphans' Home, where she was for several years matron of Cottages eight and twenty-six.

HAVE YOU A CLEAR COMPLEXION?

Is Your Face and Body Covered With Pimples and Blisters? Is Your Color Sallow and Your Skin Pasty?

If your face is covered with pimples, hickies and rough red spots; if your skin is pasty and dark colored and lacks the rose-glow of health, you should take Nerv-Worth at once and purify your system of the poisons that cause these surface indications of bad stomach, torpid bowels and liver. "I had a terrible case of breaking out on my face and neck and other parts of my body, and was almost ashamed to go out on the street," said Mrs. Pendleton, of Springfield, Ohio. "and besides I was nervous and had poor digestion. I couldn't sleep as I should and got terribly run down. I only took three bottles of Nerv-Worth when my face was free from pimples and my digestion was so greatly improved I could eat anything and I slept all night and got up refreshed and rested. Now my digestion is splendid and my nervousness is all gone." Any woman can have a clear complexion if she rides her system of the impurities that causes them by using Nerv-Worth. It is for sale by most druggists at one dollar a bottle. It is always on sale at Sayre & Hemphill's drug store in this city. It aids digestion, stoves acid stomach and gas bloated and regulates the bowels. Your money back if the first bottle doesn't satisfy. Adv.

SPENT FORTUNE IN SEARCH

"I spent $1,800 in 7 years treating with physicians, some specialists costing me $10 a visit, only to at last say that nothing could be done for me, that I had cancer or ulcers of the stomach. I suffered awful pains in my stomach, but after taking a few doses of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy these all disappeared and for 3 years am feeling fine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

ACUTE INDIGESTION FOR OVER TWO YEARS

"For over two years I suffered from acute indigestion," says Arthur L. Reeves, secretary of the Austinburg Fuel & Light Company, Ohio, "frequently calling in a physician but getting only temporary relief. Acting on the advice of a friend I took Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy regularly until the first package was used up. I then procured another package of which I have taken only an occasional dose for a real or fancied condition of acid stomach or heartburn. For seven months now I have been entirely free from any attack of acute indigestion and can eat anything I want with no fear of bad results. In case of sour stomach which is something quite annoying, one dose will be found worth the price of the package. If the above statement of facts will help to call the attention of other sufferers to the merits of Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy I shall be glad to have you use it." Signed Arthur L. Reeves.

They all say the same. For 75 cents you can get a large box of Dr. Orth's Stomach Remedy, a great physician's greatest stomach prescription, at Sayre & Hemphill's and all good druggists.

URBANA TO STAGE PAGEANT SHOWING HISTORY OF CITY

Urbana, May 18.—The biggest thing of its kind to be undertaken in Ohio this year is the proposed pageant to be produced at Urbana on June 20 and 21st. The text styles it "The Torch, a Pageant of Light, depicting the early history of Urbana." It will be shown in eight episodes and eight interludes, and will require eight hundred performers, twenty-six horses and a great store of properties. It will depict historical incidents and scenes from the very earliest history of the county down to the present time, and will be directed by Mr. J. J. Burrell, of Boston, who directed "The Wayfarer" at the Methodist, Centenary at Columbus, Ohio, two years ago, and the fact that he is to perform this service insures a production of high order and a faithfulness to details.

This pageant will be of interest to all the people of central Ohio, for the reason that the history making events that happened in Champaign County were similarly duplicated in every other county of the state, and it will require but a small stretch of imagination to depict them as having happened right here in this locality.

ENGINEER FALLS OUT OF CAB BUT DIRECTS TRAIN

Cherbourg, France, May 18.—The engineer of the locomotive of the express train bringing passengers here for embarkation on the steamers President Taft and Resolute fell out of the cab window yesterday.

The fireman had to stop the train and back up until the engineer was found.

The journey to Cherbourg then was resumed with the badly injured engineer directing the fireman at the throttle. The train was two hours late, but nevertheless it arrived in time for the passengers to catch their respective steamers for New York.

CONNIE'S DIVORCE PETITION WILL NOT BE CONTESTED

Los Angeles, Cal., May 18.—John J. Pialoglou, New York, tobacco importer and cigarette manufacturer will not contest the divorce action filed against him May 9 by Constance Talmadge, motion picture actress, his counsel has announced.

"We shall not contest the action in any manner," said George C. Hupp. "We do not intend to file an answer nor a cross-complaint. If anything is filed it will be a general denial of Mrs. Pialoglou's charges."

Miss Talmadge charged Pialoglou with cruel and inhuman treatment.

HENRY CLEWS Weekly Financial Review

Further improvement in underlying conditions during the past week has largely offset some discouraging elements in the foreign situation. The agricultural prospects as announced by the Government on Wednesday are decidedly hopeful. Some abandoned acreage is being replanted and the condition of the grain crops is increasingly favorable. Industrially, the advance already scored is being bettered. An increase of 600,000 tons in the unfilled tonnage report of United States Steel, and confirmation of the fact that fully 75 per cent of capacity is now at work in the industry combines with rather better prices to make the outlook decidedly more hopeful even than in the recent past. Business condition reports from throughout the country show steady betterment in all lines.

TWO SIDES TO FOREIGN DEVELOPMENTS

While it must be admitted that the developments at Genoa have not been very satisfactory, and while delays and discouragements there are cited by some as a reason for market reaction, leading to sales of stocks by foreigners, this factor in our own financial conditions is not a very important one, directly speaking. On the other hand, the fair prospect of a reconstruction loan to be made by the Allies to Russia holds out hope of improvement in that country which has not been possible heretofore, particularly as the making of the loan is conditional upon the acceptance of reasonable conditions regarding respect for foreign rights and similar matters on the part of the Russians. Arrangements for the international banking conference are proceeding favorably, while denial of reports concerning a break in the Entente show that the prospects of the Reparations Conference to occur at the end of this month are by no means as gloomy as they have been represented by some.

RAILROAD PROSPECTS CONFIRMED

Further reports concerning the earnings of Class I railroads during May, confirm the hopeful expectations which had been entertained with regard to the condition of the carriers. The fact that President Harding has summoned a general railroad conference for May 20 is not believed to have any necessary bearing upon the rate situation but even if it had, would point to the belief that the Administration was proceeding cautiously in its handling of the situation, and was consulting the roads' interests to a reasonable degree. Undoubtedly the improvement in the condition of the lines is a helpful factor in present business conditions which the Administration would very greatly hesitate to disturb. Meanwhile, the successful progress of the New Haven negotiations regarding the refinancing of the obligations of that line, and the very much better attitude of the public with respect to railroad securities has proven highly encouraging to the rank and file of investors who have been holding tightly to their transportation securities.

INDUSTRIAL CONDITIONS IMPROVING

General industrial conditions, as distinct from the position of individual companies or industries, are undoubtedly much better. There is every reason to expect a settlement of the coal strike within a limited period, while the production of non-union districts is increasing in the meantime and the effect of the strike to date has been far less than had been expected. Adjustment of strikes in the textile regions is now predicted as an incident of the next two weeks, and seems certain to occur at an early date in any event. With the enlargement of industrial operations, there has been a marked decline in the amount of unemployment while, generally speaking, the advance in demand for goods as reflected by wholesale and retail trade indexes has been an improving one. It is these conditions which lay the foundation for the hopeful views, expressed by the council of the American Bankers' Association in its recent session at White Sulphur Springs.

POLITICAL CONDITIONS MORE FAVORABLE

Favorable indications have also been furnished during the week regarding political conditions. The effort to enlist President Harding's support in behalf of the pending bonus measures is credibly reported to have been unsuccessful, the President regarding the movement as only in a minor way representing the desire of the soldier element. There are also rather better indications as respects the tariff, changes designed to eliminate duties to which severe objection has been taken now being apparently more or less certain to be introduced before the close of the Senate debate.

lighter during the past week, and prices lower, there has been no great pressure to sell. The break in some new listings which still lack standing has eliminated many weak spots and has also acted as a warning against indiscriminate buying without regard to real merit. At the close of the week the market presented a better appearance due to merger talk of the independent steels but the important financial interests which successfully distributed a portion of their holdings a couple of weeks ago at high prices show no great desire to load up again at the present time. This attitude is not due to a want of confidence in trade conditions as the rapid recovery in steel and iron and other lines has been much more than could reasonably have been expected a few months ago; and added to this, of course, is the encouraging money situation, which so far as can now be foreseen is likely to be one of ease for a long time ahead. The market's present action, therefore, has nothing to do with underlying conditions, which as a whole are now really good, but is entirely due to the liquidation which has taken place and which has momentarily somewhat overburdened the public at large, who have recently been buyers on an extended scale. It will be seen therefore, that it is only the technical side of the market that can be criticised and this is now in the process of correcting itself. So far as the merger of the independent steels is concerned that is important sooner or later will exert its proper influence on the shares of the companies interested, but at the moment something more than this is required to bring back the market enthusiasm which was such a pronounced feature two weeks ago.

This Nurse Tells Mothers How to Save Children from Skin Irritations and Soreness

West Carthage, N. Y.—"I am a graduate nurse, and I feel it a duty I owe to mothers whose little ones suffer from chafing, rashes, itching, scalding, or any skin irritation or soreness, to tell them that in all my experience as a nurse I have never found anything equal to Sykes Comfort Powder to heal and soothe the skin. Habitually used after a child's bath, it heals and prevents soreness and rashes."—Mabel E. Miller, R. N., W. Carthage, N. Y.

The reason Sykes Comfort Powder is so successful in such cases is because it contains six healing, antiseptic ingredients not found in ordinary talcums. For twenty years it has been used and endorsed by physicians and mothers, and nurses call it "A Healing Wonder."

He had been suffering with the disease to which he finally succumbed for several months but bore his burden bravely and without a murmur until 7 weeks ago when he was compelled to take his bed.

He attended the school in which district he lived. He united with Center Friends Meeting early in life.

His marriage to Sarah Anne Mjars took place, October 25, 1880 and to this union were born four children, Vedith Anne, recently of Marion, Ohio, Mrs. A. D. Hite, of Cleveland, Albert I. at home and Mrs. G. C. Crawford of this city. One grandchild, Billy Babb Crawford also survives.

Upon the organization of the Friends Church in this city, he became a member.

He leaves aside from his immediate family, two brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Smith, Eli and Charles Babb all of Wilmington, Ohio and Mrs. N. D. Mjars of this city.

Funeral services will be held at the residence, Friday a.m. at 10 o'clock. Friends may call after 4 p.m. Thursday.

JINX FOLLOWS LOCAL FISHERMEN AT RESERVOIR AND—WELL IT MAKES A GOOD FISH STORY ANYHOW

Undoubtedly some sort of losing jinx has been hung onto the fishing luck of Harley Cleaver and Al Regan, both of this city.

EAST END NEWS

The Xenia Patrol of Akbar Temple No. 41, Order of the Mystic Shrine, will give a big carnival at the Masonic Hall and grounds next week. The carnival will open with a spectacular parade on Monday night composed of Nobles and Daughters of Isis from Xenia, Wilberforce, Troy Piqua, Springfield and Dayton. A change of program will be featured every night and closing with a grand finale on Saturday night.

The first night they set their line and gathered in two fine channel cats. They were prepared for just such a circumstance with a fine wire chain which had been loaned them and to which they tethered the two big fish. When they went back to draw in the baubles they found the cross piece on the end of the wire had come off and the fish had returned to their native haunts.

Undismayed the next day they went at it again and as if to make up for the bad luck of the day before, the fish seemed to flock to their bait and in a short time they had seventeen of the water tribe on a line in the bottom of the boat.

In the best of spirits over their luck they hailed Hill and Davidson who were in a boat a little distance away and said:

"Hey! how many ye got?"

"Only seven," modestly answered Hill and Davidson.

"Well, just cast your eyes on this," they challenged proudly and held up the string of big fish.

The same little jinx of bad luck that lost them the first fish was again on the job and once more the cross piece on the end of the chain slipped off. Before you could say Jack Robinson every one of the fish on the string had slipped off the line and into the cool depths.

Cleaver risked his life leaning over the edge of the boat trying to seize the escaping fish and in his efforts lost a sack of perfectly good Honest Scrap. . . .

FOUR DANCING FEET

BY JANE PHELPS

Even little Tim was all excitement when he heard the news—wonderful news.

"Say, Ma, perhaps if he stays in New York long enough he'll give me a ride in his buzz-wagon. The doctor says I'll be up in a week or two. He's big! He could carry me down stairs! Gee, but it'd be nice to get out doors!"

"You mustn't ask, dearie. It ain't nice to ask for things."

"Not even for a ride when you've got a busted leg?"

"No, Tim. Perhaps he'll ask you even if you didn't say anything," she added as she saw the look of disappointment on his face.

"Maybe!—Say Ma, Gertie's stuck on him ain't she?"

"I guess not. She likes him though. He ain't in our class and I'd hate to have my girl think too much of him—it might hurt her."

"How hurt?"

"Why dearie I don't know as I can rightly explain to a little boy like you, but if you like a person a lot, you want them to like you as much. If you think they don't, it sorta hurts." She patted his head as she finished her explanation.

"Well! I'll bet he likes our Gert as much as she likes him! He used to look as if he'd like to eat her—she's most good enough to eat too. So I mustn't say anything about getting a ride?" He returned to his first idea.

Gertie was only just dressed when the honk-honk of the siren drew Mrs. Cummings and Jennie to the window, and caused Tim to exclaim:

"Gee! There he is now!"

It had taken Gertie a long time to dress in spite of no new clothes. Her hair had to come down twice before she was suited then she changed the collar and cuffs on her shabby dress that her mother had pressed. Really it did not look so bad—she thought.

It was a warm day and perhaps she wouldn't need her coat—there was no use trying to hide its shabbiness. It was worn threadbare but she would take it. Tom had spoken of her always needing a coat when she motored.

When she heard the siren she wondered if he would come up, or if he expected her to come down. She'd wait a minute or two.

Yes he was coming up. She heard her mother open the door into the pretty living room, then she heard Tim call out a greeting. She thought proudly of the pretty room, so different from the room in which they had received him so long ago. Then blushing, but very happy she joined them.

"How-de-do, Tom—Mr. Norris," she said as he rose to meet her and their hands met.

"It's always 'Tom' Gertie. Don't you 'Mister' me." Then: "How well you look! And what a nice apartment you have." Gertie flushed hotly with pleasure. He had called it an 'apartment' not a flat.

"Gertie got it with her raise."

Tim volunteered.

"Of course she would—so you had a raise?" he turned to Gertie.

"Yes, and I am in a much better place than when you were here. They are very nice to me, and—I don't sit at any of the tables."

"That's fine! Now let's get on so you can have a good ride. I'll get her back in good time, Mrs. Cummings." Then he turned to Tim.

"Just as soon as the doctor says you may, you and I will show them how my car eats up the road, eh Tim!"

"You mean you'll take me," the small boy exclaimed in ecstasy.

"Indeed I will—not once but a good many times!"

Tim was sobbing for pure joy as Gertie and Tom climbed into the car. Mrs. Cummings and Jennie watching from the window.

Tomorrow—Tom drags Gert Out.
